ANNOUNCEMENTS

In addition to the above, I have just acquired, due to the generosity of Mr. Robert Johnson, Diplodeur I, 1-26; II, 1-13; III, 1-2; IV, 1-14 except 9. Bob informs me that this set of Volumes I thru III is probably one of two complete sets in existence, so all you completist nuts out there take note.

It was hoped that the "Out of the Archives" series could start with this issue. However, I still haven't received the necessary permission for reprinting the articles in question. Maybe next time?! Incidentally, original contributions are also solicited. Edi Birsan has already volunteered to do an article on stalemate positions and John Beshara has been kind enough to allow me to publish some of his Diplomacy articles after he reviews them. Also, Rod Walker will write some bibliographic reviews and all you bibliophiles out there will take great joy in the fact that in May 1971 Rod will compile a new "Bibliologia."

WANTED: Hoosier Archives will pay a reasonable price for any postal Diplomacy publication not on the above list as it is desired to build as extensive a collection as possible. Postage and handling will also be paid for duplicates, ie, 'zines that you would otherwise throw away. If you have a rare back issue Diplomacy 'zine but are unwilling to sell it, I would very much like to borrow it for xerox purposes and am willing to pay a fee. Besides providing the copy service as stated on Page 1, I plan to reprint old articles on strategy and tactics plus other articles of interest to postal Dippy fans in general. These articles will appear in my future "Out of the Archives" series.
